Call For Papers!
Eleventh Undergraduate Political Science Conference
College at Oneonta, State University New York

Friday, April 5th, 2019
Hunt College Union
SUNY Oneonta, New York

Paper Proposal Due Date: February 15th, 2019

Undergraduates are invited to submit papers for SUNY Oneonta's eleventh Undergraduate Political Science Conference, sponsored by the SUNY Oneonta Political Science Club. We encourage papers concerning (but are not limited to) Political Science, International Studies, Africana Latino Studies, Anthropology, Women and Gender Studies, History, Sociology and related fields. We encourage that topics are related to politics and government, continental, and international!

Papers should be approximately 8 to 30 pages in length and presentations should be approximately 10-15 minutes. Specific guidelines for presentations will be sent out upon submission of papers.

The conference will continue its previous practice and will run all day. There will be paper sessions in the morning and afternoon, with a luncheon and a keynote speaker (TBA) midday. We expect to captivate presentations and interaction among all types of students from the northeastern schools of New York to be centerpiece of the conference. This is a great opportunity to meet different students and learn about varying topics of interest among your demographic.

Please submit a full draft of the paper to polisci.conference.oneonta@gmail.com. Be mindful to include a completed copy of the cover page attached below. Do not underestimate the quality of your paper, we encourage a diverse submission of papers that range from varying topics of interest. Students will be notified of their acceptance by March 1st, 2019.
